Chapter Number: 00-808

Laws Affecting Franchise Tax Board:

19274 and 19275.

Date Filed with the Secretary of the State: September 28, 2000

SUBJECT: Child Support Enforcement

Assembly Bill 1358 (Shelley/Kuehl), as enacted on September 28, 2000, made the following changes to California law:

This act generally makes numerous changes of a technical nature relating to child support enforcement. The changes are necessary to accommodate California's child support enforcement reform enacted last year that was effective on January 1, 2000.

Revenue and Taxation Code Sections 19272, 19274, 19275 and 19271.6 are amended.

This act replaces the references to "district attorney" with "local child support agency" and "Department of Social Services" with "Department of Child Support Services" (DCSS), the successor agency and successor department, respectively, under reform.

Section 19271.6 additionally provides that DCSS, instead of the Department of Justice, will compile the list of obligors with out-of-state child support delinquencies and forward the list to the Franchise Tax Board.

This act is an urgency statute effective and operative immediately upon enactment.

This act will not require any reports by the department to the Legislature.
